SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PARISH is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church. See our notice board for contact details.

TRIBUTE TO NOEL COLEMAN

Noel Coleman was born on 8th December 1938, one of nine – five boys and four girls. He was the fifth to pass away. A brother Paul Francis died when he was a baby – born on February 2nd, 1949 and died on the 11th April, 1949; his brother John Joe died in 2016; Mick and Delia both died in Sydney and are buried there in 2020. Noel himself had immigrated to England and returned in the early 1970's when he took over the home farm, starting milking in 1975 with eight cows. Noel work hard for everything he got. To supplement his income, he worked on construction sites in Galway until he was able to buy a JCB himself in 1980 and go out on hire. He was talented with the JCB long before the joystick! Many homes around the area were dug out by Noel. Noel worked hard for farmers and builders while continuing to milk morning and evening. A keen businessman, after the wet summers in the late 1980's, he bought a baler and wrappers in 1989, and went into contracting bailing silage until he was in his mid-70's. That brought him all over the countryside from Headford to Ballinrobe and beyond and had many happy stories and memories from those days.

Everything Noel had, he worked for himself. He was always there to help out neighbours, showing regard and respect to all. The typical Mayo man, he loved sported and would watch every Mayo match, often going to matches in Castlebar and Galway. He could be found watching Sky sports at any hour of the day – they will miss his subscription.

Noel had been ill for some time. In the build up to the All-Ireland between Mayo and Dublin in December, he has said that if Mayo did not win now, he would not be around to see them win. Noel knew time was getting short. Noel and Helen would have been married 46 years on 25th January. He never stopped loving his four grandchildren, and when they called, especially during his illness, they would brighten his day whenever they called to see him, bringing a smile to his face. He always loved to see them coming in the door, especially when he was feeling bad or low.

Death comes to us all, and there comes a time when we all stand before God to give an account of our lives, our actions and deeds. In this regard, Noel will not be found to be wanting – never feeling entitled to anything, he was a hardworking man; he enjoyed getting up every morning, knowing what work as ahead of him, building up the farm and baling business from starch. He was a good neighbour, gentle who never deliberately would do wrong or hurt to anyone; mistakes were made for sure, but the good far out weights the wrong. In one of his last conversations, he said that if he had his life back to live; he would still choose Cahermaculick and farm the land as he did. With that, we commend Noel to God, to welcome and embrace him, where there is no more suffering or pain or worry or upset or hurt, but peace, love and warmth. We ask God as well to watch over Helen, keep her safe and strong at this time of trial, may her faith and belief in God guide and console her and her family in all they do. May his soul rest in peace.

GALWAY DIOCESAN PASTORAL LENTEN OUTREACH ZOOM PROGRAMME 2021

Mark's Gospel was the first of the Four Gospels to be written. On five Tuesday evenings facilitated by Fr Gerard McCarthy SVD, we will journey through the Passion narrative of this Gospel, attempting to grow in our understanding of the final days of Jesus, leading to the great event of the Resurrection. These sessions are not 'academic' and it is not necessary to have attended other Bible courses in the past. More than anything the sessions are an attempt to discover the power of God's Word and the tremendous influence it can have on our lives once we open ourselves to it in faith and hope.

There will be time for questions and discussion in each session. Scripture texts and supporting material will be provided. The course runs online via Zoom for five Tuesday evenings from 23rd February to 23rd March 2021.

Tue 23rd Feb: Gethsemane: Prayer in Despair
Tue 2nd Mar: False Accusations
Tue 9th Mar: Questions, but no Answers
Tue 16th Mar: My God, My God
Tue 23rd Mar: He has been Raised

Are you interested? Just drop an email to pastoral@galwaydiocese.ie and we will send you a link to the Zoom meeting platform. What a great way to prepare for Holy Week! Online Faith Discussion During Lent:

THURSDAYS: 'Living Christian Faith in the Family': The talks will be streamed at 8.30pm every Thursday during Lent. www.knockshrine.ie/watch-live or on Facebook @knockshrine

SHRULE PARISH NEWS:

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! In these months it is become evident the vital role and contribution parishioners make to their parish and the level at which a parish function's. Recently, the new Archbishop of Dublin noted that over 50% of active clergy in the archdiocese are over 70 and that the future of parishes depends not on clergy but the parishioners. Here, the willingness of people was evident when the call went out for ushers and over 70 people stepped forward. The process now continues in restructuring to ensure the parish functions into the future. As you can see in with Shrule Altar Society, the purpose of dividing the area into townlands is to ensure that any person who volunteers is not overwhelmed and knows what they are committing to from the start. Volunteers will not be expected to cover months where there are no volunteers.

GLENCORRIB CHURCH: Looking for a volunteer who will open Glencorrib church on Saturdays, otherwise the church will remain closed on that day.

SHRULE ALTAR SOCIETY: Volunteers needed for Shrule Altar Society. This group helps ensure and are responsible for flowers for the altars and sanctuary. Minimum would be 2 people per month. The area will be divided into 12 with each responsible for 1 month. Support & help is available to those who volunteer.

THOSE WHO VOLUNTEER WILL ONLY BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR MONTH ONLY.

Note there will be different arrangements in place for Christmas and Holy Week. The following are the areas assigned to each month. It is possible to change areas with respective months. The number after the month and townland indicates volunteers:

January: Dalgan Road & Cahreen (1)	July: Wakefield (0)
February: Dalgan Domain, Gurteen & Carramore (0)	August: Ramolin & Tubberkeerane (0)
March: Dalgan Park & Dalgan Yard (0)	September: Mocollogan & Cahernabruck (0)
April: Kilmaine Road, Kille & Cahermaculick (1)	October: St. Mary's Road (1)
May: Churchfields & Shrule (0)	November: Brodella (0)
June: Largan, Joyce Park & Shrule Grove (1)	Dec: Brodella South / Cloonbanane / Long Hill (0)

Please contact the parish if you would like to volunteer. I would like to take this opportunity to thank those who already are volunteering in the parish, especially in these challenging times. In particular, I want to acknowledge Bernie Finnerty who after many years involvement in church ministry has decided to take a step back. Bernie was involved in the choir for many years. When I came, she stepped forward to become the main sacristan and did huge work behind the scenes in preparing the church for liturgies especially at Christmas and Easter and especially at times I was preoccupied with other matters. I will not forget her support and help at those times in particularly. Thank you Bernie, and to all who volunteer, Fr. Vivian

WILDLIFE SURVEY 2021 - THE ROBIN (AN SPIDEOG) A few facts about Robins.

- The European Robin is widespread throughout Irish gardens.
- Unlike a lot of birds, the male and the female robin look the same. However, the male colouring is a bit more vibrant.
- The average lifespan of a robin is usually less than two years.
- Most pairs have two broods per year. The young robins usually fly in about 12-14 days.
- Like many small birds the robin must eat more than a quarter of its own body weight to stay alive for just one day.
- Robins often are portrayed in picturesque snowy winter landscapes. As robins are ground feeders, this type of weather can be a disaster for them as they are unable to access food below the frozen ground.

To help ground feeding birds like the robin survive to another Christmas, in cold weather scatter some seeds on the ground/place some seeds on an old plate on a raised area (away from cats) during the daytime. Remember birds also need water to drink especially in frosty or hot weather. For survey information or to send records email to sgkwildlifesurvey@gmail.com. Follow on Instagram @ sgkwildlifesurvey2021

- Just heard on the news, that the local shop is taking 1c off carrots. I don't think carrots has the same ring to it, though?
- Wearing a mask inside your home is now highly recommended. Not so much to prevent Covid-19 but to stop eating.
- As I watched the dog chasing his tail. I thought to myself that dogs are easily amused. Then I realized that I was watching the dog chase his tail.

I know it's good to get to school early, but 8th March is two weeks away, mum

We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.' Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes.

You may think that you are completely insignificant in this world. But someone drinks coffee from the favorite cup that you gave them. Someone heard a song on the radio that reminded them of you. Someone read the book that you recommended, and plunged headfirst into it. Someone smiled after a hard day's work, because they remembered the joke that you told them today. Someone loves themselves a little bit more, because you gave them a compliment. Never think that you have no influence whatsoever. Your trace, which you leave behind with every good deed, cannot be erased.

You're not imagining it, nobody seems to want to talk right now.

Messages are brief and replies late.

Talk of catch ups on zoom are perpetually put on hold.

Group chats are no longer pinging all night long.

It's not you.

It's everyone.

We are spent.

We have nothing left to say.

We are tired of saying 'I miss you' and 'I cant wait for this to end'.

So we mostly say nothing, put our heads down and get through each day.

You're not imagining it.

This is a state of being like no other we have ever known because we are all going through it together but so very far apart.

Hang in there my friend.

When the mood strikes, send out all those messages and don't feel you have to apologise for being quiet.

This is hard.

No one is judging.
