JOY: This Sunday we re-light the first two candles of the Advent wreath - the candles of HOPE and the candle of PEACE. Now we light the third candle of Advent – the candle of JOY. As the coming of Jesus, our Savior, draws nearer, our joy builds with our anticipation of his birth. This is sometimes called the 'Shepherds Candle' and whereas weeks 1,2 and 4 are purple, week 3 is usually pink to emphasize the joy of the coming of the Lord.

Advent Talks

Prayerful preparation for Christmas 2024

WEDNESDAY 4 DECEMBER 8.00PM

Very Rev. Martin Whelan

— Incarnation in the writings of John Moriarty —
Mystic and philosopher John Moriarty was born in Co. Kerry in 1938. He lost his Catholic faith as a teenager, and after some years of lecturing in Canada, he returned to Ireland and worked as a gardener. He eventually returned to the Catholic faith but with an entirely fresh vision of the tradition, drawing on the Rhineland mystics, Carmelite spirituality, ecology, and world mythology.

Fr Martin Whelan is parish priest of Moycullen. Having studied physics, philosophy and theology, Martin has an interest in the relationship between faith and science, which is a major theme in the writings of John Moriarty.

WEDNESDAY 11 DECEMBER 8.00PM

Dr Clíodhna Donnelly MB, MPH, MD

— Caring for the Dying in Ireland and the Threat of Euthanasia —
Dr Clíodhna Donnelly is a Galway native with a medical doctorate in the speciality area of palliative medicine. She has published a book entitled A Lovely Death: Caring for the Dying in the Irish Tradition.

WEDNESDAY 18 DECEMBER 8.00PM

Br Ronan Sharpley OFM

Br Ronan is a native of Co. Leitrim. Having spent 4 years as a student in NUI Galway studying civil engineering in the noughties, he now finds himself back 15 years later as a Franciscan friar, this time ministering to the students and other young people of Galway. Br Ronan will speak about how this journey unfolded for him, from Galway to El Salvador as a lay missionary and then back to Galway, and what drew him to both youth ministry and the Franciscan Friars.

LOCATION: Áras Naofa, St Oliver Plunkett Church, Renmore, Galway H91 YV52.

Talks are approx. 45 minutes long; questions and tea/coffee follow. Talks are free but a voluntary collection is taken to help with expenses.
